Your program at the Edward C. Little Water Recycling Facility will include a lively presentation inside the Water Education Center designed to increase your students' awareness of the California water supply and the water cycle, along with practical ideas regarding water conservation and recycling. During the program, students will be allowed to explore interactive exhibits and tour our working water recycling facility.

This field trip program package typically costs over $1,000. However, your local West Basin Director, Scott Houston, is happy to provide this complimentary field trip experience in support of your classroom curriculum.

This is a popular education program with many classes on the waiting list. If your class cannot attend on its scheduled date, please call to cancel at least 72 hours in advance. If inclement weather may affect your trip, you will be contacted to discuss an alternate date or changes in the schedule that can accommodate the weather.

We look forward to your visit.

Sincerely,

Fritz Petropoulos
